Fall Golf Classic & Social Slated For Montreat Scottish Society Members

The Montreat Scottish Society (MSS) will hold a charity golf outing and Fall Social on Saturday, September 24, 2005.

To attend, you need to register and fill out a form that is included with this newsletter. Space is limited so act today! Register before Aug. 31.

The MSS Golf Classic will benefit the Presbyterian Home for Children in Black Mountain after event expenses are deducted.

Limited to 40 golfers, the golf event costs $65 per participant, which includes greens and cart fees, and attendance at that evening's casual Fall Social. Registered golfers may bring their spouse or a guest for an additional $10. The golf event is being co-chaired by Bill Jackson and Ron Vinson.

Golfers will tee off hole #1 at the Black Mountain Golf Course from 12:30 - 1:42: p.m. on Saturday.

"We've designed this event so that people could even drive up to Montreat on Saturday morning, play golf, enjoy the social and have a great fall weekend in the mountains," noted Jackson.

Golfers will play a captain's choice on drives, with all golfers playing their own ball into the cup. Prizes will be offered for closest to the pin and other special contests.

You will be able to order teas, Scottish biscuits, jelly, chutney, cakes, and even sirloin haggis, on the Society's web site beginning late in July.

Non-golfers also can attend the casual Fall Social which begins at 7 p.m. in Montreat. The Social will offer wine, beer and non-alcoholic drinks, plus a barbecue dinner of whole chicken breasts and pulled pork, salad, vegetables and dessert. For non-golfers, the Fall Social costs $15 a person or $25 a couple. Register as soon as possible for these events, due to space limitations.

A Bit o' Scotland You Can Order Online

You can enjoy a taste of Scotland, while helping support the Montreat Scottish Society (MSS) by shopping on our web site beginning in late July.

Anyone who uses the MSS web site to link to and go shopping at Caledonian Kitchen will help the Society. A portion of purchases will go to help the Society fund its non-profit activities.

You can order Edinburgh and Scottish teas and biscuits, lemon and lime curd, and delicious cakes, ranging from single malt whiskey cakes to rum cakes to chocolate bourbon. You can even order haggis which is served at the Gala, as well as palate-pleasing chutneys, jellies, fudge and much more!

Check it out at the Society's web site.
