Scottish Saturday at the Movies Kicks Off Society's Winter Season Activities

The second season of Scottish Saturday at the Movies will kick off on Saturday evening, January 13th, at 6 p.m. in Convocation Hall at Assembly Inn.

The free evenings involve a potluck dinner starting at 6 p.m., followed by the movie at 7 p.m. and ending around 9 p.m. About three dozen MSS members, guests and local residents enjoyed each movie last year.

If you are planning on attending, bring either an entree, salad or dessert. Reservations are NOT needed. However, if you have the opportunity, please call Ann or Ron Vinson at (828) 669-2975 or e-mail to rv102dsl@bellsouth.net so we can plan on table setups. Also, let us know what you plan to bring.

Everyone is invited whether you are a MSS member, guest or area resident. We will provide the popcorn for the movie and beverages for the dinner!

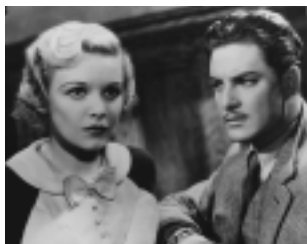

After tallying the votes from last fall on the preferred movies, here is this season's movie lineup:

Saturday, January 13th 6 p.m. — Convocation Hall, Assembly Inn

Thirty-Nine Steps — Alfred Hitchcock (1935 Mystery)

The film that brought international fame to Hitchcock, features an innocent man trying to prove his innocence against the gathering forces of darkness. An unlikely pairing results in romantic complications. One of the fast and furious chases includes the famous Forth Bridge sequence. Not Rated: G equivalent. B/W.

Saturday, February 10th 6 p.m. — Upper Anderson, Second floor Anderson Auditorium

The Little Minister (1933)

Based on J. M. Barrie's book, this rarely seen film is set in rural 1840's Scotland. Gavin Dishart arrives to become the new "little minister" of Thrums' Auld Licht church. He meets a mysterious young gypsy girl (Katherine Hepburn), who helps local weavers rebel and is more than she seems. This film is not currently available on either DVD or VHS. Come see this sweet moving, love story by the author of Peter Pan! Not Rated: G equivalent. B/W.

Saturday, March 3rd 6 p.m. — Upper Anderson, Second floor Anderson Auditorium

A Man Called Peter (1955)

True story of a young Scottish lad, Peter Marshall, who dreams of going to sea but finds a different future when called by God to be a minister.

Leaving for America, he eventually becomes a pastor to Presidents and then becomes Chaplain of the U.S. Senate before his untimely death. Not Rated: G equivalent. Color.

2007 Robbie Burns Tea Scheduled February 3rd

The annual Robbie Burns Tea will be held on Saturday, February 3, 2007, from 2 - 4 p.m. at Bill & Susanne McCaskill's home, 114 John Knox Rd., Montreat. The 2007 Tea is chaired by Ann Vinson.

Celebrating the birthdate of Scotland's poet laureate, Robert Burns, the tea is free. A piper and pianist will provide afternoon entertainment.

2007 Scottish Gala & Program

The 5th MSS Scottish Gala will be held on Saturday evening, April 14th, at a Scottish Castle (Assembly Inn in Montreat complete with banners, torches, flags and other surprise decorations).

The formal Scottish attire or black-tie event begins at 6 p.m. with a reception with open bar and hors d'oeuvres and a silent auction of Scottish related items. Toasts and the Address to the Haggis will begin about 7 p.m., followed by a fabulous dinner highlighting individual Beef Abernethy entrees (aka Beef Wellington) and a special musical program.

Be sure to plan on attending! Costs are $70 per person for Society members, or $90 for each non-member (see the short registration form on page 4).

The evening's program will feature Doug and Darcy Orr with a unique musical presentation about the connection between the music of Scotland and Appalachia. The Orr's are in the research phase of a new book, tentatively titled Wayfaring Strangers, based on the same theme as their presentation. The book is being planned with NPR's host of The Shamrock & Thistle, Fiona Ritchie. Darcy will edit the book, while Doug and Fiona are co-authors. Doug retired last year as president of Warren Wilson College.

About 120-plus attend each year's Scottish Gala and reservations fill quickly, so be sure to act today!

Last year's Silent Auction featured some 20 items, including Scottish crystal glassware, an 1790s Edinburgh newspaper suitable for framing, a Scottish Pub-in-a-box (glasses, towel and coasters), books, music CDs, jewelry, collectible wines and more more!

The Montreat Scottish Pipes & Drums and pianist Martha Chasteen provided music during the reception.

In Memorium

The Rev. Leslie C. Tucker, Jr., passed away in mid-December. He was the seventh president of the Montreat Conference Center, serving from 2000 to 2002. He is survived by his wife, Lenoir.

New Society Project Being Considered: New Order of MSS Tartan for Anderson Lobby & for Members; Need Your Interest

The Board of the Montreat Scottish Society is considering a project — filling a request by the Montreat Conference Center — to re-cover the panels in the Anderson Auditorium lobby with Montreat Scottish Society tartan.

The Society would have to make a sizeable minimum order of the 5-thread MSS tartan — much more than would be needed for the lobby project — in order to have it manufactured. In order to make this project possible, we need to know of any interest by MSS members in purchasing the extra tartan fabric. The recommendation of the weaver is a medium-weight poly-acrylic. The colorful fabric (shown, not to scale) could be used for decorative pillow covers, tablecloths, runners, draperies, etc. The estimated cost of the tartan is $24 a yard (approx. 60-inches wide) for pre-production orders, and $32 for orders received after the tartan is manufactured.

If you are interested in placing a pre-production order, please contact: Ron Vinson, through the MSS mail box (MSS, PO Box 414, Montreat, NC 28757) or by phone 828-664-0741 before June 1st.

If there is sufficient interest, we will proceed with the project and confirm pre-production orders.
